LADIES' DAY ON THE OPENING

At a called meeting of the directors of the Paducah Fair association, held at the office of Secretary Rodney Davis late yesterday afternoon, four committees for the fall fair and the race judges were appointed. They are as follows:

ON FANCY WORK, ETC.—Mrs. George W. Robertson, Sr. (chairman), Mrs. D. W. Settle and Mrs. Frank Eninger.

ON PRESERVES, JELLIES, Cakes, ETC.—Mrs. H. Wallerstein (chairman), Mrs. L. W. Emery and Mrs. Quincey Wallace.

ON SWINE AND SHEEP.—Messrs. Ollie Post (chairman), Sanders Brooks and Charles Harting.

ON MILK, JACKS AND JENNETS.—Messrs. Lacy Hibbs (chairman), Hazard Thompson and Ed Willett.

Mr. C. W. Tolbert, of Pontiac, Ill., the popular race judge, who has presided at several previous meetings here, was chosen starter and presiding judge. Associate judges will be John W. Keller and C. L. Van Meter.

Mr. Ben Frank will be in charge of the scales for the livestock, but a marshal has not been appointed. The times for the races will be named later.

Ladies' Day.

A favorable announcement made by the association today was that the opening day of the fair, which will be Wednesday, September 28, will be known as "Ladies' Day." Ladies will be admitted free of charge and they will not doubt flock to the grounds to see the elegant displays to be made in floral hall. There will be no entry charges for fancy work, cakes, etc. In the floral hall as well as for fruits, vegetables and farm products. The women of Paducah have taken a keen interest in the fair and want to help make it a success. An indication of this Secretary Davis has received word from several that they will display many articles not called for in the program. All kinds of fancy work and handwork will be on exhibit.

Paducah merchants and farmers have also notified the association that they will make elaborate displays, showing all farm products and a number of items not specified in the program. This is very encouraging to the association.

Entry blanks for any department at the fair can be secured from either Secretary Davis or Mr. Henry Hazotte at H. Weller & Sons upon request. The poultry and live stock items will arrive tomorrow from the Evansville Anchor Supply company. Decorations in floral hall are still in progress and it will be a beautiful spot.

In the racing program the trot for untrained horses is set for the first day, the winners receiving $20, $10 and $5 for the first two out of three heats. The untrained pace is set for the last day, October 1, with the same purse. All horses owned in Jackson's Purchase within 50 days previous to the opening of the fair, can be entered. A large number of entries are looked for and this will attract much attention among the young farmers in the purchase.

The contract for the band will be closed today by the association. A large band will be secured, playing each day during the fair.

Owners of poultry will not have to worry about the care of their fowl, as the association will provide some one. The poultry will be weighed, fed and taken care of free of charge and will be in safe hands.

The grounds will be sprinkled every day to prevent dust. The success of the fair hinges on the weather. The track will be thoroughly soaked this week and rolled into excellent condition.

Some of the swiftest harness and running events are to be seen here for the first time in many months. Owners of fine race horses are coming and about sixty runners will be entered during the four days of racing. The purses offered are bringing the horses here. All possible efforts are being made to make the fair a big success. A daily balloon ascension will be an interesting feature of the fair.

Boys Quarrel on Road in Graves County Results in Death of One And Other Becoming a Fugitive

Sim Brooks, It Is Alleged,
Shoots and Kills Stanley
Gibson--Officers Are Still Hunting For Him.

Mayfield, Ky., Sept. 20.—(Special)—Officers are still scouring the south part of county in an effort to arrest Sim Brooks aged 23 years, for killing Stanley Gibson, aged 21 years, of near Louisville. The boys met in the road each having a companion and began to quarrel about some old trouble, when Sim Brooks being the only person armed drew a revolver and fired three shots into the body of Gibson, killing him instantly. Alvin Pittman, Gibson's companion was shot in the leg and ran home.

Sam Brooks and his brother Clarence Brooks were on the way to Mayfield to church and when about two or three miles of Mayfield they met Stanley Gibson and Alvin Pittman and all spoke to each other in a friendly way. Just after they had passed it is said, Gibson called to Brooks and said he wanted him to take back something he had said about him last summer. They all stopped and a quarrel began and they came to blows. After passing a few feet, Brooks is said to have pulled a pistol and shot Alvin Pittman in the thigh, but the wound is said not to be dangerous. Brooks is then alleged to have shot Gibson four times, killing him instantly.

Pittman, who was shot in the leg, said he heard three shots, but Justice Bird, who was called at 9 o'clock at night, thinks that Gibson was shot four times as there were two bullet holes in his head and one in his side and another near the shoulder.

Justice Bird took the statement of Pittman and then issued warrants for the arrest of Brooks and placed them in the hands of Lawson Alexander and Constable Palster.

Sam and Clarence Brooks are sons of Mr. Tom Brooks, while Alvin Pittman is a son of three Pittmans. Sam Brooks is 25 years old and Gibson was about 21 years old. They are all young men, unmarried and are members of good families.

It is also said they were all sober and all unarmed except the one who did the shooting, and that no trouble was anticipated a moment before it started. There seems to have been some trouble between them last summer.

The shooting took place near the home of Mr. Dick Sims, who was the first man to appear upon the scene. When he arrived he found one man standing by, one dead man and a mule.

It is not known whether Pittman was accidentally shot or whether he was shot on purpose.

The Brooks boys are cousins of Representative Houston Brooks, of this city.

SHOOT 2 WOMEN AND SELF

Georgie Mae Jenkins of Love Interest.
Abbeville, Ga., Sept. 21.—B. Manns today shot and killed Mrs. Cole H. Williams, wife of former Mayor Williams, because he believed she had interfered to prevent the success of his suit for the hand of her sister, Mrs. Eugene Royal, a widow. The latter saw the shooting. As Mrs. Williams expired Manns turned his revolver upon the widow, wounding her in the hip, and then killed himself.

School Attendance For the First Week

For the first week of the school session the attendance is normal. Last week there was a total of 2,261 pupils enrolled in the public schools, a decrease of 17 from the first week of last year. However, the enrollment will be equal to last year's figures, and possibly may surpass the figures by a small margin. A number of small children applied for entrance cards during the first week of school and were refused because they were not vaccinated, a requirement that is being enforced rigidly this year.

The attendance at the various school buildings show that the outskirts are increasing in population.

THE WEATHER

The predictions and temperatures for the past twenty-four hours will be found at the top of the seventh column on page four.

PLAYS WITH FLAMES.

Little Alvin Lehnard, the one-year-old son of Fireman John Lehnard, was amused by the blue blaze of the gas stove this morning at the home, Seventh and Madison streets. The little fellow wanted to play with the pretty flames and while his mother was not looking reached his hands in the fire. Both hands were badly blistered.

MRS. BRADLEY'S CHILDREN WIN

CHILDREN OF SENATOR BROWN AND WOMAN WHO KILLED HIM.

Salt Lake City, Sept. 20.—The famous Brown will contest was closed here today by an agreement under which Mrs. Anna M. Bradley obtained $12,500 for her two children, for the sake of whom she shot former United States Senator Brown, in Washington in 1906. The case pending in the courts will be dismissed. Brown had left a will giving $100,000 to his sons by his first marriage, but leaving nothing to his two children by Mrs. Bradley.

Dean's Band Employed.

Prof. John Dean's reorganized band will furnish music at the fall fair and races, the deal being closed today by Secretary Rodney Davis of the Paducah Fair association. Prof. Dean's band consists of 21 pieces and will be a big drawing card.

GALEN MILLER, FORMER CALLOWAY CLERK, DIES

Mary, Ky., Sept. 20.—(Special)—Mr. Galen Miller, former county clerk died here last night of tuberculosis. He was the son of former Representative Miller, and was well known all over the Purchase. He was a single man.

NEW YORK POLICE SHAKE-UP COMING

RESULT OF ACTING MAYOR'S GAMBLING CRUSADE ANTICIPATED.

New York, Sept. 20.—Indications that there will be a new head of the New York police department and a general shake-up as a result of Acting Mayor Mitchell's gambling raids, loomed up today. Mitchell visited Mayor Gaynor at his Long Island home last night. It is believed that Police Commissioner Baker will be removed, following a grand jury hearing on gambling evidence, which will be submitted by District Attorney Whigman.

School Attendance For the First Week

According to Superintendent J. A. Crangey, the R. E. Lee school has decreased in attendance about 60 pupils this year. For several years there has been a gradual decrease in the enrollment of the school. Formerly the school had one of the largest enrollments in the city. The Whittier school, which is located in Rowlandtown, made the largest increase in enrollment. The attendance at this school is increasing every year, while the Franklin school shows a gain in attendance. The High school and all of the other buildings have about a normal attendance.

Lorimer Trial On.

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Inquiries into the methods by which Lorimer was elected United States senator were begun here today. All the members of the senatorial committee were present, except Frazier, of Tennessee, and Bulkeley, of Connecticut. They are coming later.

PROPOSITION OF FEDERAL BASKET COMPANY IS GOOD

No Bonus Until End of Year Sees Benefits to the City.

Six Per Cent Paid on Payroll of Workmen.

COMMITTEE IS SUCCESSFUL

A get-together meeting of the committee from the Retail Merchants' association and the Commercial club, which are raising subscriptions for the Federal Basket company, was held this morning to plan for the week's work, and the most encouraging reports of the donations so far made were received. The committee reported that a little over half the fund is subscribed and anticipates no trouble in getting the balance.

"The proposition is the best one we have had yet," said a member of the committee today, "and when it is explained, it is easy to get subscriptions. The Commercial club and the retail merchants have promised the Federal Basket company that, at the end of each year they will give the concern, as a bonus, an amount equivalent to 6 per cent of the payroll of the plant. And, in that pay roll is included only the workmen in the factory, not the salaried officers. So you see, we are paying out nothing, until after we have received what benefits will arise from the operation of the plant, which should be great, as it will employ probably 200 persons. We expect to finish up the work this week."

LAST GAMES WILL BE PLAYED TODAY

LIVELY CONTEST ON FOR SEC- OND PLACE IN THE KITTY LEAGUE RACE.

Today will end the season of the Kitty baseball league. The final games will be played, and the fans will have to show of batting and fielding averages and discharging prospects for next season. McLeaneboro clinched the pennant some time ago by securing a runaway lead for first place. However, the fight for second place has been keen between Harrisburg Paducah, Hopkinsville and Vincennes, with Clarksville holding tightly to the booty prize. The games yesterday eliminated Vincennes from the running for the second place, while Harrisburg has the strongest chance of landing the position by her double defeat of Vincennes. If Harrisburg wins today's game Manager Hastings and his bunch can claim the place without dispute. In case Paducah wins and Harrisburg loses the Indians will have it by eight points. Should Harrisburg lose and Hopkinsville win these two teams will be tied.

SKYSCRAPER ERECTING COMPANY IS DEFENDANT

Suit for $2,000 damages was filed in the McCracken circuit court this morning by Alvin Pierce against the Falls City Construction company. On August 11 Pierce alleges he was employed at the office building being erected at Fourth street and Broadway. The freight elevator in descending struck the end of a plank and the other end struck him in the face, inflicting permanent injuries.

DISGUSTING ARE WOMEN'S CONDUCT

OUTRAGED CROWD DEALERS FOR MR. CRIPPS' OLD FURNITURE.

London, Sept. 20.—Morbid curiosity in the Crippen trial reached a climax today in a scramble to buy the doctor's furniture, which was sold at public auction. Fashionable women crowded the sale room and outbid curio dealers, indicating a desire to possess the things belonging to the man on trial for murdering his wife.

The Third District Senatorial Mix Results In Both Sides Appealing To the Congressional Chairman

Fight Between McCreary Men and Anti-McCreary Men
For Henry Lawrence's Seat
On State Ex. Committee.

The Third district Democratic senatorial muddle, resulted in a dog-fall at Murray today, when the committee met—or didn't meet—according to the respective views of the two parties to the appeal to Congressional Committeeman W. A. Berry, who is becoming reconciled to refereeing every action of the Calloway county Democracy.

The committee was to meet at this morning in adjourned session. Chairman Chrisman, of Calloway county, reputed to represent that side, which desires to nominate Halney T. Wells, of Murray, for senator to succeed Coan Linn, and opposes the candidacy of J. B. McCreary, held the proxy of Mitchell, of Livingston county. K. J. Doon, of Lyon county, and former Sheriff Broadbent, of Trigg, who adhere to the cause of Henry Lawrence, of Cadiz, and therefore look with friendly eye on the candidacy of Mr. McCreary, kept themselves well hid during the morning, although they were in Murray, as was Mr. Lawrence.

They desired no early convention. Mr. Chrisman did.

However, Mr. Chrisman's efficient runners located Messrs. Doon and Broadbent in the hotel lobby just before train time, and rushing in upon them, Mr. Chrisman, rapped for order, declared the committee in session and a quorum present. He then announced that under a previous ruling of District Chairman W. A. Berry in an appeal from Calloway, the members of the committee could not leave and break up a quorum once present.

Never a word spoke Mr. Doon or Mr. Broadbent. In the flesh they may have been nearby, but in spirit they were far away.

Mr. Chrisman pulled from his pocket the proxy of Mr. Mitchell, of Livingston county, which he read.

Chairman Chrisman announced that he was ready to entertain a motion to call a convention to nominate a candidate for state senator, for the November election of 1911. Mr. Chrisman, holder of Mr. Mitchell's proxy, moved that county mass convention be held November 15 at the county seats of the counties of Calloway, Lyon, Livingston and Trigg, to choose delegates to a district convention at Eddyville November 17.

Chairman Chrisman seconded the motion.

There being no remarks, Chairman Chrisman put the question.

Chairman Chrisman and Mr. Chrisman, of Calloway, holding the proxy of Committeeman Mitchell, of Livingston, voted aye.

No aye. Carried.

Upon motion of Mr. Chrisman, holder of Mitchell's proxy, the committee adjourned.

Then all of them came to Paducah, Chairman Chrisman to get Congressional Committeeman Berry's O. K. on his action, the others to appeal against his action.

It's the best tip that Congressional Committeeman Berry will sustain the action of Mr. Chrisman. The significance of the action is associated with the state campaign. There is no hurry about the nomination, since the election will not be for a year from November; but Henry Lawrence, of Trigg, member of the state executive committee and McCreary's western Kentucky manager, is a candidate for the senatorial nomination. If the nomination is held at once, Lawrence will be compelled to get off the state committee, thus weakening the McCreary forces, who desire a primary, by one vote.

At least, that is the Lawrence view of the situation.

Lawrence Talks.
Henry Lawrence said today: "One man cannot issue a call for a convention, and I don't consider that any call has been made. Messrs. Doon and Broadbent were called out, and while they were out Mr. Chrisman proceeded with the meeting. He was admonished to call the roll and see how many were present. He proceeded to act without them. I have not announced as a candidate, and I don't know whether I shall or not."

The other faction considers that Doon and Broadbent went out of the hotel lobby to break the quorum and insist, that, once being present and counted, they could not leave and break the quorum.

Perry Melton, one of the editors of the Calloway Gazette, acted as secretary, though he is taking no part in the factional fight.

Messrs. Frank Iseman and Spencer Johnson left this morning for Knoxville, Tenn., on a visit.

It is believed he fell overboard from the houseboat and drowner. He lived on South Seventh street in Paducah.

The service will be for the departed members and especially in memory of the late John R. Puryear, for many years an officer in the church. At the afternoon service several addresses will be made. Dr. Penrod will preach at the morning service while the Rev. J. Howard Carpenter will preach the evening sermon. A large attendance is expected at all of the services. An invitation was extended to all of the former pastors (but some were unable to be present.

Chanler No Piker.

New York, Sept. 20.—Whatever else he may have done, friends of Robert Chanler, husband of Cavalier, are satisfied today he was no "piker in wooing the business-like enchantress. For proof, they point to bills on which creditors are suing sheriff "Bob." Among them are $24 for a pair of trousers, 12 white waist coats, and a little luncheon at Martin's coming to $8.15.

MODERN HAIR DRESSING

has played havoc with the tresses of the fair sex, and druggists everywhere comment on the fact that they are selling large quantities of sage for making the old-fashioned "sage tea," such as was used by our grandmothers for promoting the growth of their hair and restoring its natural color. The demand for this well-known herb for this purpose has been so great that one manufacturer has taken advantage of the fact, and has placed on the market an ideal "sage tea," containing sulphur, a valuable remedy for dandruff and scalp rashes and irritations. This preparation, which is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, is sold by all leading druggists for 50 cents and $1 a bottle, or will be sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

The Last Day.

Harrisburg at Vincennes.
McLeansboro at Clarksville.

Hart Was There.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 20.—Lee Hart was too much for the hard hitting Hopkinsville team to solve, and he escaped after allowing six hits. It was unnecessary for him to pitch hard as his teammates batted the ball behind him and secured just 15 safe runs off their old team mate, Joe Crain. Crain failed to fool any of the Indians, and they slugged the ball to all parts of the field. The largest crowd of Hoptown fans of the season saw the slaughter of their innocents. Paducah fielded in excellent shape while Hopkinsville made six bobbles.

Score— R H E
Paducah..... 10 15 3
Hopkinsville..... 4 6 6
Batteries: Paducah, Hart and Overton; Hopkinsville, Crain and Zeke Taylor.

Harrisburg Stays Second.

Vincennes, Ind., Sept. 20.—Right when it looked hopeful for Vincennes to take the second game of the final series, Crazy Snake Calbert hit the ball over the fence for a home run and the visitors won, 3 to 1. It happened in the fourth inning when the score was 1 to 1, and Vincennes was never able to overtake the lead. Big Pete Taylor and Morris Johnson pitched splendid games and kept the hits down.

Score— R H E
Harrisburg..... 3 4 4
Vincennes..... 1 6 2
Batteries: Harrisburg, Taylor and Fish; Vincennes, M. Johnson and Glenn.

Leaders Bounced.

Clarksville, Tenn., Sept. 20.—Bailey's great pitching with the heavy hitting his teammates won the game for Clarksville by a score of 4 to 2 yesterday. Higginbotham, the crack southpaw, was rapped for 13 safeties, while Bailey was hit safely only six times and he kept the safe ones scattered. A large crowd saw the game.

Score— R H E
Clarksville..... 4 12 4
McLeansboro..... 2 6 3
Batteries: Clarksville, Bailey and Burke; McLeansboro, Higginbotham and Berry.

End of Kitty Season.

Today ends the Kitty League season. The results today will fix the standing of the teams for the season. If Paducah wins and Harrisburg loses, Paducah will stand second. She has clinched third place. The following table shows how the teams will stand in any event:

CLUBS.	W.	L.	PCT.
McLeansboro	68	5	.930
Harrisburg	51	5	.900
Paducah	50	9	.848
Hopkinsville	48	13	.783
Vincennes	47	15	.758
Clarksville	37	25	.597

Dope.

Vincennes has lost hope of taking second place for the second part of the season. The fight has now narrowed down to Harrisburg, Paducah and Hopkinsville.

Unless Vincennes takes today's game from Harrisburg, the Illinois team will have second place despite the three defeats administered by the Indians.

Gwin probably will twirl today for Paducah, while Guy Johnson, who pitched Labor Day, or Yon may take a ding at the Indians. May the Indians repeat the trick.

Lee Hart was too much for the crack Hoppers. His southpaw delivery has some puzzlers, and he has plenty of steam.

Sunday a large crowd at League park were disappointed when Hopkinsville marched off victors by the score of 1 to 0. Yesterday before a big crowd at Hopkinsville the Indians fe'd on Crain and drove him to the woods, while the Hoptown fans exploded. Such is baseball.

BUMPER CROPS ARE EXPECTED

WILL PUT COUNTRY ON SOUND
BUSINESS BASIS.

Monetary Outlook Shows Decided Improvement—Indications Are Democratic.

ONLY DISTURBING FEATURE.

New York, Sept. 20.—In some respects essential conditions are improving. Two weeks more and the corn crop will be out of danger, so that if frost does not intervene, we are practically sure of a bumper crop of about 3,000,000,000 bushels, bringing to the farmers over $1,500,000,000 of new wealth. The importance of this factor not only in its relation to the farmer, but to the railroads and to numerous important industries depending upon corn, can hardly be overestimated. It will do much to replace the west upon a sound business basis, and must offset many of the drawbacks arising from recent overdoing. The cotton crop is also making satisfactory progress, though later in maturing and more exposed to injury from frost than corn. All things considered, the harvest is turning out somewhat better than anticipated. While grand results measured in quantities are not what was originally desired, still the country has escaped disaster from deficiency, and growers will be more than compensated for any shortage by the profitable prices which nearly all farm products now command. This country is peculiarly dependent upon its harvests, and the fact that these are about to be garnered with very satisfactory financial results is a basis for much congratulation.

Monetary Outlook Improves.

In one other important respect there has been decided improvement, and that is in the monetary outlook. There is no longer any fear of a money crisis this fall, as at one time anticipated. By means of forced liquidation the bank at all the great centers, especially New York, have materially strengthened their resources. The loosened pressure for funds for both business and speculative purposes has also removed the probability of any dangerous strain upon our financial system. In the west, where trouble was most feared, there has been a very decided improvement and bankers there are once more lending with increased freedom and easier rates. There will be no occasion for the government to aid the money market this year; in reality, the situation will be reversed, and the banks are more likely to be called upon to aid the government in the marketing of a new loan. Nothing more than usual fall stringency is now expected. Fortunately they will be abundantly able to assist. The only disturbing feature in the monetary outlook is the deadlock between British and American banks in regard to the financing of cotton bills of lading. If the financing of the cotton crop were to fall upon the New York and southern banks some inconvenience if not serious difficulty might ensue; but the probabilities are that a solution will be found before the time limit, October 31, expires.

Investment Situation Better.

The investment situation shows some betterment. Prices of many of the best class dividend payers are exceedingly low. Moreover, the current supply of securities has been greatly curtailed and conditions are not yet favorable for new issues. In view of the extent to which unfavorable influences have been so largely discounted, there is abundant room for occasional rallies. No pronounced change for the better is yet to be looked for; on the other hand there is a reaction from recent pessimism, and discouragement is giving way to a calmer and more hopeful temper. There is a feeling that many of our troubles have been taken too seriously; that exaggerated fears have in some cases carried values below their intrinsic merits, and that better things are in sight. If not already in hand, it is quite possible that here and there dividend reductions may have to be faced, yet it would seem as if the shrinkage which has taken place within the last eight months has amply discounted all such possibilities.

MOTHERS NEED

OLIVE TABLETS.

Nursing mothers need the gentle laxative qualities of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

These pleasant little sugar-coated tablets were brought to the perfection point after fifteen years of experiment with all sorts of laxatives. To Dr. F. M. Edwards, of Portsmouth, belongs the honor of this achievement. His wisdom and experience are evident in the results obtained through their use.

They not gently yet firmly. Always effective. The Olive oil in them soothes and heals wonderfully. They never gripe or pain. One has but to try them to use them always over after when a laxative is needed. At all druggists in 10c and 25c packages. Try Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets tonight. abilities. Not a few good stocks are cheap even at lower dividend rates.

Results Democratic Congress.

The most disturbing feature in the market at present is the political situation. All indications point to liberal Democratic gains in November, and possibly a Democratic congress after the next session. The present strong drift toward radicalism is not much lessened in financial circles, especially as there is every prospect of more or less radical legislation when members elected next November take their seats. It is to be hoped that the present wave of radicalism will later on be checked; for the political outlook is anything but reassuring, and is regarded with some apprehension in high financial circles. General trade continues quiet. Our iron and copper industries are still suffering from overproduction and the textile markets from the abnormal price of cotton. Nevertheless, there is no unpopularity in the business outlook which a period of quiet and moderate liquidation will not cure. At the west there is a more confident undertone, and while business is less in volume than a year ago, there are distinct indications of revival. Upon all pronounced reactions on the stock exchange good stocks are likely to prove a profitable purchase. Perhaps a sharp outlook should be kept upon the political horizon, for a crisis is not improbable. Not infrequently the politicians consider it good tactics to create a scare; and there have been operators in the market quite willing to encourage such an opportunity for the purpose of picking up cheap stocks. Some of our difficulties are being taken altogether too seriously.

NEW MEN'S COATS

Have Shorter Lapels

Perhaps the most noticeable tendency in the season's coats is the shortening of the lapels, thus decreasing the size of the opening. This tendency has been growing for several seasons, but the coming one will see the first real move toward laying aside the long roll lapel and taking up the shorter one.

In the new sack coats the lapels are so short that four buttons are necessary in closing.

The preferred lapels this year are so wide as to make the coat have almost the appearance of a double-breasted garment. This gives a certain breadth to the figure which was formerly secured through the padded shoulder.

Properly cut, these broad lapels do not prevent the coat from rolling open all the way down, thus giving a free and easy neatness that is very smart and extremely comfortable.

Tomorrow would be a good time for you to drop in and see the new importations of woollens and discuss your own needs with us. Selections are more varied now and our tailors less busy than they will be after another week has passed.

LIVESTOCK.

Louisville, Sept. 20.—The receipts of hogs were only 1,215 head, a scant supply, and on that account the market opened active with prices a dime better. All good hogs, 30 pounds and up, selling at $9.75; light pigs, $8.00 @ 9.00; roughs, $8.75 down. The pens were well cleared early in the day, and the market closed steady.

The receipts of hogs are still far below normal. Not near enough good hogs coming to supply the local packers, to say nothing of the eastern orders.

Cattle.

The receipts of cattle were 2,726 head, about 500 head less than were on sale a week ago. There was a good crowd of buyers out, both local and foreign, and the trade seemed slightly stimulated, and especially on the better grades. Prime to fancy butcher cattle were in active demand and fully steady to firm, an occasional sale probably at a slight advance. Medium and common butcher stock was in liberal supply, and the trade on that class ruled dull and draggy with a slightly lower tendency. Green 900 to 1,100 pound steers were dull. Good, healthy inquiry for the best feeders and stockers at steady to firm prices. Medium and plain grades slow. Common, little, trashy stock cattle dull to a shade lower. Not many heavy cattle here. One fancy load of cornfed 1,434 pound steers went over the scales at $7 per 100 pounds which was the best price obtained for some time. The pens were well cleared and the market closed steady.

Calves.

Receipts 210 head. The market ruled dull, a shade lower, the best 7 1/4 @ 8 1/4; some fancy shade higher; medium 6 @ 7 1/4; common, 2 1/4 @ 6c.

ONLY DISTURBING FEATURE.

New York, Sept. 20.—In some respects essential conditions are improving. Two weeks more and the corn crop will be out of danger, so that if frost does not intervene, we are practically sure of a bumper crop of about 3,000,000,000 bushels, bringing to the farmers over $1,500,000,000 of new wealth. The importance of this factor not only in its relation to the farmer, but to the railroads and to numerous important industries depending upon corn, can hardly be overestimated. It will do much to replace the west upon a sound business basis, and must offset many of the drawbacks arising from recent overdoing. The cotton crop is also making satisfactory progress, though later in maturing and more exposed to injury from frost than corn. All things considered, the harvest is turning out somewhat better than anticipated. While grand results measured in quantities are not what was originally desired, still the country has escaped disaster from deficiency, and growers will be

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20.

Daily Thought.

No man means evil but the devil, and we shall know him by his horns.—Shakespeare.

Yet, the man, who braved the fury of Niagara's whirlpool, emerged with increased respect for it.

One righteous man has been discovered in New Jersey. Will he suffice to save it from destruction?

The aviators, who attempted the Alps flight, too, said "The die is cast." Their Rubicon proved temporarily insurmountable.

Surprise is indeed provoked by the disclosures of graft in Cincinnati; not at the existence of graft, but at the idea that any one in Cincinnati considers it worthy of attention.

THE KENTUCKY MILITIA.

The Louisville Times, which recently originated a fake story to the effect that the government would not allow Kentucky's appointment of the military fund, because the regiments did not have a hospital corps, maintains a staff correspondent at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., where the maneuvers are taking place, apparently for the exclusive purpose of sending home deprecating reports concerning Kentucky's troops. When we remember that Kentucky officers and men have had more actual field duty than the troops of any other state in the last two years, that all during the tobacco troubles the officers and boys conducted themselves with valor and discretion, restoring order where anarchy had overthrown local authority, avoiding clashes with unfriendly civil officers, at all times amenable to strict discipline yet able to cope with emergencies as they arose, we cannot accept the Times' disparagements as offered in any spirit except of pique and malice. The crack First regiment of Louisville has been trained under such competent leadership as Col. William Halderman and Colonel Bingham, and we would expect that organization to display some of the effects of their training, even though they are not now in command of the regiment.

A SUCCESSFUL EXPERIMENT.

Oiling the streets was an experiment in Paducah this summer, and as the season is drawing to a close we are able to pass judgment on the plan. We are thoroughly convinced that the preparation of oil and asphaltum is a decided success in keeping down dust and preserving a solid road bed. Not only is the crown of the streets preserved from disintegration and the discomforts of dust laden air obliterated, but it is probable that the oiling has operated as a check on germ disease, though that result can be only negatively predicated on the theory that dry particles floating in the air are densely populated with bacteria.

Some of the streets, it is true, are now becoming dusty, but the condition of Fountain avenue between Broadway and Jefferson street, for instance, shows that where the oil is properly applied it will last a full season. Some places, perhaps, the foundation was not quite properly prepared; in others the oil was not applied thickly enough. There is no economy in applying too little. All this was an experiment, and the lessons learned will benefit us in the future, since, no doubt, the oiling of streets will be adopted as a fixed policy by the city, and next year more money should be appropriated and the oil applied to more streets.

STATE PRESS.

Suspicion in Calloway.
 A meeting of the Third senatorial district committee was called for last Saturday at Eddyville. The call was made by Newt Christman, of this county. No meeting was held because of the fact that Henry Lawrence, of Trigg, was absent attending a meeting of the state executive committee, of which he is a member, the same date at Lexington. There is a move on foot by a bunch of schemers and machine politicians to do some dirty work in this district. It is the intention to call a snap convention a year in advance of the election. The ledger wants to hold out a warning before such action is taken. The nominee of

WORLD'S WHEAT YIELD.

Washington, Sept. 20.—The world's yield of wheat this year will be above the average according to the estimates of the department of agriculture, which has just issued the following statement on the crop from the world-wide viewpoint:
 "The world wheat harvest, which at the opening of 1910 was progressing southward in Argentina and Australasia, began north of the equator in February. Starting in British India the operations gradually expanded over the magnificent wheat areas of the northern hemisphere, until they are now completed, excepting on small surfaces in the more northerly limits of its culture. The total acreage was doubtless the largest in history, the normal world area, about 235 million acres, having been heavily increased this year by additional sowings of spring wheat in Russia and Canada. Up to July, when a fair crop had already been generated in Argentina and an excellent one in British India, the prospect was for a world crop heavier than any proceeding one, but drought that month in the spring wheat belts of North America and Russia and an unprecedentedly wet, cool summer in France are believed to have resulted in serious losses. When the final figures are made up it will not be surprising to find the total world yield short of a high record (3,621,000,000 bushels last year); the crop is reasonably certain, however, to go down in history as above the average."

such is an order for his political grave stone as soon as the nomination is handed him. The people of this county and district are forever done with gag and gang rule.—Murray Ledger.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

A Non-Partisan Plan.

EDITOR OF THE SUN, DEAR SIR—I wish to avail myself of your invitation to express my opinion, concerning the local campaign, particularly the school board outlook. There will be eight trustees to elect, and four members go out this year. Two of these are Democrats and two Republicans. The Democrats are E. J. Pettit, of the First ward, and H. B. Saltzger, of the Sixth ward. Mr. Saltzger was elected to fill the vacancy in his ward by the present board, which is Republican, and Mr. Pettit has supported the present organization throughout. It seems to me that the Democrats have simply beaten the Republicans to the nomination of Mr. Saltzger, the south side member, and there is nothing for the Republicans to do in his case but to ratify the action of the Republican board by putting him on the Republican ticket. Mr. Pettit has made a good record, has been un-partisan, and in accordance with the Republican claim of non-partisanship, he should receive consideration in the convention or primary to nominate candidates. These two men are as responsible as anyone else for the good record of this board. A non-partisan ticket is what people of Paducah desire and a non-partisan spirit is appreciated by the voters. I observe by your own news columns that the fusion movement, which won in Lexington last year, will be tried again this year. The people of Paducah, the majority of whom are Democrats, have frequently of late years elected Republicans to office, because they have lost confidence in the Democratic ring organization and because the Republicans have shown a non-partisan spirit. It seems to me, who am one of the independent voters, that the Republicans could make no stronger plea for the support of good citizens this fall, than by endorsing for reelection all good public servants, irrespective of party, as long as they have conducted themselves in an un-partisan manner.—INDEPENDENT.

Heard in the Lobby

Mr. F. E. Reldhead, manager of the Stone & Webster interests in Paducah until last year, has been elected executive agent for the school board at Minneapolis. He has been a resident of Minneapolis for many years, and has made it his home except when manager of several traction companies in the south.

Firemen of the Central station were sad today. It was not so much because of the strenuous work last night, but rather due to the death of "Scrubby," a common little yellow colored terrier that was dear to their hearts. "Scrubby" was the mascot of the station, and to hear the fire ladders talk had more instinct than some people. The last run of "Scrubby" was made last night when the fire wagon started out to answer the fire alarm. He ran after the horses and was caught under one of the wheels.

Judge Emmett Hagby received a message today from Reuben Bagby, who is in the state of Washington, that he had just hanged a big, black bear. Reuben Bagby is on a ranch, just west of the Columbia valley, and has been having some great hunts. In a letter from him received a few days ago, he said that they had not seen the sun for over a week, on account of the heavy pall of smoke from the recent forest fires; that all of the wild animals had been driven from the timber into the vicinity of the cleared grounds and that the nights are hideous with their howls. The people on the ranches are compelled to stay in at night, on account of the danger, but the hunters are having a great sport.

Paducah people returning from the state fair, at Louisville, bring tales that are certain to hurt that institution with folks in this section of the state. "I never saw anything to equal the way we were held up," said W. E. Cochran, who returned today. "You were made to pay to enter the gate, and if you fancied seeing any of the exhibits, you had to come across with more coin. The saddle rings, the harness rings, a peep at Dan Patch—any of the features—simply meant another contribution to a fund that is reputed to be going into the hands of a few men for salaries. The institution is supposed to belong to the people of the state, but from the comments, which were pretty general the day I attended, Louisville won't pull the wool over our eyes any more." Other Paducah people bring tales of the same tenor, and the event has done anything, but win favor with west Kentucky this year.

Interesting Hunters' Exhibit.

Local hunters are now busily engaged in polishing things up in eager preparation for the serious business of the year. That's why they will be keenly interested in the unique window display of hunting paraphernalia which Mr. August Thierling has prepared for Hank Brock, the largest dealer and jobber in sporting goods in this section of the state. Mr. Thierling, who is one of their crack traveling men, had ample material to work with, for they buy their shells by the car load and immense quantities of guns, too. Winchester and Remington Pump and Automatic Shot Guns and Rifles are the heavy pieces of the display, and shells, cartridges and cleaning apparatus of various sorts are used for trimming.

The result is not only a work of art, but a splendid index to the low prices and immense stock of this popular house. Gun prices range from $3 to $25 for the best, and if you're a hunter you'll surely want to see the display. If you're merely interested in unique and ingenious window displays, you will vote the best you have seen in many a day.

JAPAN REACHING OUT.

Special Embassy Looking to Better Steamship Service.
 Washington, Sept. 20.—Japan appears to be steadily moving forward in a systematic policy of extending her influence and trade on the eastern shores of the Pacific ocean. Advice to the state department from its officers in Peru are to the effect that the Japanese special embassy, which was sent to Chile to participate in the centenary celebration of Independence, spent some time also in Peru.

It is thought that with improved steamship service, which has recently been established, Japan may in the near future import large quantities of cotton and sugar from Peru.

Dr. J. C. Convery, a physician and chemist of high standing, extols the virtue of the great health restorer.

There is always a great and lasting satisfaction to be derived from administering a remedy and obtaining the result desired and expected. I have been engaged in the practice since I graduated, over 45 years ago, both in pharmacy and medicine, and I have sold and prescribed hundreds of bottles of Dr. J. C. Convery's Pure Malt Whiskey in cases to maintain and build up a patient's bodily resistance and shorten the period of convalescence, and patients who complain of headache, biliousness, want of appetite, lack of vigor and ambition, and a general run down and exhausted feeling. I have found nothing more beneficial than Dr. J. C. Convery's Malt Whiskey. I am positive of its being pure and unadulterated.—Dr. J. C. Convery, 119 Sixth Ave., N., Nashville, Tenn.

END OF QUARREL

RACHAEL JACKSON, COLORED, KILLS HER HUSBAND.

Declares She Shot Him in Self-Defense—No Eye Witnesses to Shooting.

As a sequel to repeated quarrels, Rachael Jackson, 35 years old colored, shot and instantly killed her husband, Jim Jackson, 75 years old, at 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, at their home, 1022 Humboldt street. There were no eye witnesses to the murder and the woman, who is awaiting the action of the coroner's jury, claims self-defense.

After quarrelling with her, Jackson's said to have struck his wife over the head with his cane. Reaching for a revolver Rachael fired once and Jackson dropped with a groan. The bullet entered just beneath the left ear and buried itself in his brain. He was dead before the alarm spread. Chief of Police Singery received the message at police headquarters and Patrolmen Franklin and Smith were sent to the scene in the patrol wagon. The woman was weeping over the corpse, which was removed to the undertaking shop of C. J. Howell, colored, 432 South Seventh street, where an inquest is being held this afternoon by Acting Coroner Charles W. Emery. The woman was locked up in the county jail on a charge of murder and it is likely she will go acquit of the charge.

Jackson was an inmate of the old soldiers' home at Quincy, Ill., but had been in Paducah since June. They failed to get along together and fought frequently. Jackson is thought to have attempted to prevent his wife from leaving home yesterday afternoon and attacked her with his cane. Her head was beaten and bleeding from wounds inflicted. There were no eye witnesses.

Should the murder be found not to have been committed in self-defense, County Attorney Sanders E. Clay will swear out a warrant against the woman, charging her with murder, and she will be given an examining trial before County Judge Barkley. Since Circuit Judge Reed has held that Police Judge Cross has no jurisdiction in homicide cases, witnesses summoned to go before Coroner Emery are; Patrolmen Smith and Headlee, Sam Howell a d Tom Williams. The inquest began at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Relatives of the woman have employed Attorney T. H. Hazelip and Police Judge D. A. Cross to defend her.

TWO FIRES KEEP FIREMEN ON JUMP

FORD'S FEED STORE DESTROYED LAST NIGHT.

Second Alarm Comes in While the Department is Engaged With It.

RESIDENCE ON SOUTH SIDE.

Two fires early this morning had out every piece of fire apparatus in the city except the steam engine. The larger fire was the wholesale feed store of T. E. Ford, 324 South Second street, which was badly damaged. The second fire which broke out when the first was in progress, completely destroyed the residence of C. C. Scott, a jeweler, at Twenty-eighth and Caldwell streets. The loss of both fires may amount to about $12,000 with about $5,000 insurance.

Fire broke out in the basement of the Ford feed store shortly after 11 o'clock last night. A mistake in giving the alarm caused the fire companies to go to 321 South Sixth street before the correct location was learned. The fire was burning bravely in the basement of the feed store, and it was difficult to fight because of the large amount of stock on hand. The firemen put up a good fight, and finally won out although the stock was badly damaged because of the large amount of water necessary to extinguish the blaze. By hard work the firemen kept the blaze confined to the basement although at times it threatened to spread up the elevator shaft, and the stock on the first floor suffered from water damage while smoke had a damaging effect also.

Mr. Ford estimates his loss at between $6,000 and $8,000 as it will be possible to save some of the stock. He carries $3,000 insurance on his stock. The basement was well crowded with three cars of hay, two cars of salt, lard, sugar, flour and meats. Mr. Ford left the store last night at 7 o'clock and made a trip through the store to see that all the doors were fastened securely. The cause of the fire has not been learned.

The building is owned by Roy W. McKinney and is insured for $2,000. The exact damage to the building cannot be ascertained until the debris is removed, but it will not exceed the insurance, it is thought.

Another Alarm.
 While the firemen were in the midst of conquering the blaze at the Ford store, an alarm was received that the Paducah Box and Basket company, Fourteenth and Caldwell streets, was on fire. Fire Chief Wood and the Nos. 2 and 5 hose wagons started for the factory, but when within a square of the fire saw that the blaze was outside of the city limits. Chief Wood and the No. 2 hose wagon returned to the Ford fire, while the No. 5 hose company went to the second fire.

The fire destroyed the residence of C. C. Scott, which is located in O'Brien's addition, and outside the city limits. The firemen had no opportunity to use the hose as there are not any water connections. The chemical engine was used to save several outhouses. The residence was two stories and was owned by V. G. Garner. It was valued at $2,400 and was insured for $1,200. The household goods are valued at about $1,000 and although some of the goods were saved the loss will amount to several hundred dollars with about $200 insurance.

The Scott family had a narrow escape from severe injuries and possible death as a result of the fire. The blaze gained headway, and was discovered by a negro, who broke in the door before the family was aware that the roof was burning over their heads.

It was a strenuous night for the firemen, who worked all night and were exhausted after the two fires. The fire at the Ford store was not extinguished until after several hours of hard work.

The fire last night at the feed store was difficult to fight and two firemen are off duty as a result, while nearly all the fire ladders are bruised or injured slightly. Fireman Joe Cross had the nozzle and was preparing to climb in a window, when he was pushed, and the leader to the middle finger of his right hand was severed. He fought the fire for about 30 minutes before he discovered the seriousness of his injury. After the return to the station the injury was dressed and he will be off duty for some time. Walter Young, who is a substitute fireman, was overcome by the heat and smoke, and it was necessary for a physician, who ordered the fireman taken to his home.

AN AGED AND RESPECTED COLORED MAN PASSES AWAY.

This morning, September 20, 1910 it is 10:30 o'clock, at his home near breada school house, John Lee, an old and highly respected colored man, died at the advanced age of 84 years.

Not all the heroes die in battle. Not all the heroes are confined to any race, color or era. If a hero is a person of courage, who bravely fights and overcomes great odds and by almost superhuman efforts rises above surrounding adverse and nearly insuperable obstacles to success, then here was a hero.

Born ninety-nine and one-half years ago in Virginia, a slave, and having been brought when a small child to Kentucky then practically a wilderness, and remaining a slave until long after mature manhood, he lived his time from his master and then worked for himself at the iron furnaces and to chop wood in the coalings until he made money enough to buy his freedom from his master, paying therefor seventeen hundred dollars. After this he continued to work until he became at one time the owner of several fine farms in Livingston county, and at the same time reared a family of fifteen children, giving such of them as would take it, a good education, so that some of them are now teachers in other states and permanent in their respective communities.

For many years prior to his death he was a member of the Baptist church and lived a consistent life and died in the Christian hope for a home in heaven. Peace to his ashes.

Here is a Message For All American Mothers

It is your duty to see that your children give attention to their hair. If they have thin, straggly hair or become bald in the future, it will be because of your neglect NOW.

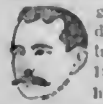

HOW ABOUT YOUR BOY? Will he be a bald headed man?

HOW ABOUT YOUR GIRL? Will she have a healthy growth of beautiful hair that will be her pride and yours, in the years to come?

These are questions that you must decide NOW.

WOODBURY'S COMBINATION HAIR TONIC

safeguards the health of the hair. It is the only hair tonic made from the formula of the great dermatologist. It prevents dandruff, stops falling hair and instantly relieves itching scalp. It restores the vitality of faded hair, preserves the natural color and makes the hair beautiful and abundant.

Regarding this famous hair tonic, John H. Woodbury writes: "The formula from which this Hair Tonic is made was tested and improved for over thirty-five years before a bottle was sold through the stores. That's why Woodbury's is the world's greatest Hair Tonic. It is backed up by the skill acquired in treating many thousands of cases at the Woodbury Institute, Gettysburg, Pa. Let the whole family have the first treatment to-night. YOU WILL NEVER REGRET IT."

YELLOW JOURNAL IS RESPONSIBLE

MAYOR GAYNOR SAYS THEY MUST STOP OR GET OUT.

Wounded Chief Executive in Letter to Sister Says He Was Not Afraid to Die.

FELT ATTACK WAS COMING.

New York, Sept. 20.—Mayor William J. Gaynor, in a letter to his sister, Miss Mary E. Gaynor, of Utica, N. Y., which is printed in this afternoon's Evening Post, tells in an interesting manner of his impressions at the time he was shot on the steam ship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse.

The mayor says that he has not read a line of what has been published of the shooting nor does he now remember the name of the man who shot him. After going over the incident of the shooting and describing his sensations following the infliction of the wound, Mayor Gaynor wrote:

"I was not a bit afraid to die. If that was God's will of me, I said to myself, just as well now as a few years from now. No one who contemplates the immensity of Almighty God and of His universe and His works, can fear to die this flesh."

Stop Yellow Journals.

"Though the thing had not entered my head that morning, I was not surprised when I realized that I was shot. I had a feeling for some weeks that I might be assaulted on account of the anonymous threats I was getting by mail. I had ceased walking over the Brooklyn bridge."

Mayor Gaynor in the letter, scored certain newspapers for the manner in which they attacked him, saying:

"Such journalism is, of course, in absolute defiance of the criminal law and it did enter my mind to publicly call on the grand jurists and the district attorney to protect me from it. But I was weak and feared the people would say I was thin skinned. But the time is at hand when these journalistic scoundrels have got to stop or get out and I am ready now to do my share to that end."

Continues to Improve.

Robert Adamson, the mayor's secretary, said that the mayor's condition continues to improve.

"It is true," he explained, "that he has had pains on the right side of his head since he was shot, but they are due to neuralgia. It is true, also, that his voice is husky and low. This is because he has been compelled to do too much talking since he left the hospital."

"The mayor plans to return to his desk at the city hall on October 3, and in the meantime to do as little talking as possible."

Your kidney trouble may be of long standing. It may be either acute or chronic but whatever it is Foley's Kidney Remedy will aid you to get rid of it quickly and restore your natural health and vigor. CURE FOR LAME BACK

Men who suffer from out of order kidneys or rheumatism and can not "trot" the kiddies or otherwise use the muscles of the back without discomfort, should test the new Par-Koia Globes treatment which druggists say is so good for these troubles.

It is recommended for all complaints of the kidneys and bladder and rheumatism, and the remarkable sale it is having, notwithstanding its short time on the market, seems to prove that it possesses unquestioned merit. Druggists say they have never seen a medicine which seemed to give such universal satisfaction. A full guarantee to refund the money, if it fails, is offered by Gilbert's Drug Store.

WHEAT IS DULL IN CHICAGO PIT

BUYERS TAKE HOLD, BUT NOT VERY STRONGLY.

Armour Grain Company Lets Up on Poundings—Hulls Helped By Europeans.

COLD STIRS THE CORN TRADE

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Wheat was dull and weak during the early part of last week, but picked up a little later when it became evident that buyers had begun to take hold of the grain. Then, too, the Armour grain company, which firm had been pounding wheat steadily, ceased to be an aggressive factor on the selling side late in the week, and this helped things along considerably. It was the general belief among traders in the wheat pit late in the week that A. J. Lichstein, who has been the big bear in the market, had jumped to the other side. Whether he will start a bull campaign in wheat remains to be seen. At any rate, the big trader evidently believed that it was time to get out of his short wheat.

Lichstein's brokers and commission houses had been buying wheat steadily all day Thursday, and their aggregate purchases were not less than 3,000,000 bushels and might have been more. It was the belief also that the same principal had been a quiet buyer for several days previously, his purchases being deliberate and to take profits on short wheat. Much speculation was indulged in as to the effect of those purchases on the market. Unless further support is forthcoming it is possible that the market is now in a weaker position than before, as the hedging sales have not been covered, and Lichstein's place on the short side, while distributed among many shorts, nevertheless includes many strong people who are not likely to be lightly influenced. Smaller shorts will be governed to some extent by the action of the outside markets. The leadership among these will probably be taken by the Northwestern, which is largely bullish.

European Interest Rekindles.

Another help to the bulls was the apparent rekindling of European interest in American wheat. A Baltimore message, which read, "Our exporters grab everything offered and have worked our cash wheat up over Chicago December," had considerable effect on the wheat market here, but did not influence cash handlers and local exporters. The latter had offered wheat at 1 cent above Chicago, September 1, 0. b. here, and at 7 1/4 cents under Chicago May 1, 0. b. Buffalo, to Baltimore the night before the receipt of this message, and had been unable to get any response. All of the local cash men agree that there is no possibility of export sales from Chicago at the present level of prices.

The foreign situation is of much immediate significance. Large export sales must be made at once and continuously in order to clean out the big stock here before the close of lake navigation three months hence. There is little prospect of this at the present rate of sales. In fact, practically all the wheat received here since harvest, except the "bargain-sale" lot from the ill-timed July deal, is still in warehouse here. From a feeling of anxiety lest they might not be able to fill their warehouses, the elevator proprietors are now worrying over how to make room to care for further daily grain arrivals.

Receipts in the northwest are running light, being but half of those of a year ago. Nevertheless supplies there show a very big increase because of the comparatively poor outlet. Stocks at Minneapolis increased over 1,000,000 bushels for the week.

Hull Important Conference.

An important conference of the spring wheat mills of the northwest was held behind closed doors Thursday of last week. There were 26 country mills represented. The proposition up for consideration was the closing down of the mills pending a readjustment to a more legitimate basis. At present prices of spring wheat the spring-wheat millers are entirely unable to compete with the winter-wheat millers. While there was no general agreement reached at the meeting, it is expected that by next week many of the spring-wheat mills will be closed down.

Trade with winter-wheat mills and with spring-wheat mills located in the east is in marked contrast with the business current among spring-wheat millers. The winter-wheat men are doing a big business. Thus far nearly all of them have been running on the wheat bought in their own locality since harvest. A few of them, however, have reduced their stocks sufficiently to induce them to do a little shopping around among the large centers of accumulation. It is not expected that the shipping sales from Chicago to interior millers will be very large during the remainder of the calendar year. In that time, however, it is expected that mill warehouse stocks will be reduced low enough to get the miller into the market for cash wheat at the big terminals, Chicago included.

Market More Responsive.

On Monday the market was more

"YOUR FACE LOOKS SO MUCH BETTER."

Pimples and Blemishes Cleared Away By Poslam, the New Skin Remedy.

Results are seen after one overnight application of poslam when used for pimples, blemishes, rashes, undue redness, clearing the complexion, etc. It works wonders in quickly restoring any affected skin to normal condition and healthy tone. "My face was always full of big pimples, and I used to be ashamed to go on the street," writes Mrs. Helen Christian, Jersey City, N. J., "but since I used poslam my face is as clear as a new-born baby's."

In promptly disposing of these minor skin troubles, poslam gives evidence of its remarkable powers to heal the more serious and stubborn skin diseases, such as acne, tetter, scabies, etc., in which it has made its great reputation. Itching is stopped as soon as poslam is applied. A sample sufficient to show results is mailed free, upon request, by the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City. Poslam is sold in two sizes (trial, 50 cents; regular jars, $2) by all druggists, particularly Gilbert's and R. W. Walker & Co's.

responsive to bullish than to bearish influence. The selling had plainly been overdone; there was no important selling to take its place, and the market gradually improved. Frequent and irregular fluctuations within narrow limits recorded the contest between the natural influences on one side and the technical speculative situation on the other. The latter proved the more immediate and effective. Influences in favor of higher prices outside of the technical speculative situation were few. The chief one was the light receipts at Duluth. Minneapolis receipts were only slightly short of last year. There was a little nibbling for cash wheat here and a considerable improvement in the south-west. There was nothing doing on export account in any direction.

When proved a disappointment all around on Tuesday, it failed to make good the promise of strength held out at the close of the previous day, and it also failed the break as badly as the bears anticipated in view of the influence prevailing. Commission houses in general were disappointed at the small volume of business. The day's range of prices was very narrow and the trade was small. Statistics for the day in the domestic field were more cheering to owners of wheat. The figures for the week, both domestic and foreign, were decidedly the reverse, the European visible being increased enormously—over 12,000,000 bushels—and the total is now 31,000,000 bushels larger than a year ago.

Sentiment More Bearish.

Continued weakness was shown in wheat on Wednesday. Popular sentiment was more bearish and liquidations more general than on any of the previous recent declines. Foreign markets were also lower. Many longs were not disposed to carry wheat over Thursday's legal holiday in the market, when most of the other domestic and all of the foreign markets were open. The liquidation was helped along by continued selling pressure from influential sources, followed by more or less short selling by smaller professionals.

On Thursday the market was closed on account of primaries in Illinois, but on Friday coverage of short wheat by the larger grain interests brought about a very substantial advance in prices, following a lower opening. The market was not a very large affair, and therefore was quite responsive to the new demand. It was the popular impression that the Armour Grain company covered a good line of short wheat put out at a very much higher level. This taking of profits followed similar action by the Lichstein brokers, the whole taking an immense quantity of wheat off the market. Very little long wheat went overboard.

Cold Affects Corn.

The sudden appearance of another cold wave in the northwest, with freezing temperature in northern Minnesota and North Dakota, stirred the corn trade early in the week, but the market was quite weak later. Warmer and fine weather prevailed over the corn belt, and this led to a great deal of selling by the commission houses, a few of the cash concerns taking part. Shorts were about the only buyers. Toward the last of the week it was the popular impression that the Armour brokers were buying corn to cover short stuff. Private reports indicated that the crop was making rapid progress toward safety from frost damage. September corn was 3/4 cent lower for the week. December declined 1 1/4 cents and May 1 1/2 cents.

Oats made a better showing than any other grain on the list. There was some weakness early, due to very heavy selling pressure, but later receivers reported a drying up of country offerings, and this was supported by the fact that Chicago had very slim receipts. September oats advanced 1 1/2 cents for the week and December was 1/4 cent higher and May gained 5/8 cent.

A Reliable Medicine—NOT A NARCOTIC.

Mrs. F. Martl, St. Joe, Mich., says Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us from trouble and we are never without it in the house. Grand Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge Estimates Membership in 1910 at 3,000,000.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 20.—The prediction that by 1919 the Independent Order of Odd Fellows will number 3,000,000 members if it continues its present rate of increase was made by John H. Goodwin, grand secretary of the sovereign grand lodge, at the opening of the annual convention. The hundredth anniversary of the order falls in 1919, and the present membership is something over 2,000,000.

The grand secretary reported total receipts for the year as nearly $200,000 ahead of last year's totals, with expenditures for relief approximately $144,000 less. In the homes of the order there are now 3,261 inmates. The total cost of these homes, including property values, is given as $2,226,676.

Charters were issued during the year to lodges in Panama, Cuba and New Foundland, and to an encampment in Alberta.

A constitutional amendment approving the establishment of a tuberculosis sanitarium was presented to the grand lodge. The order at present has no such sanitarium, and this amendment was the only one among those presented which was not laid on the table indefinitely. It was referred to a committee, from which an early report is expected.

The RING and the MAN

WITH SOME INCIDENTAL RELATION TO THE WOMAN

By CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY

ILLUSTRATIONS BY DEARBORN MEYER

It was Eleanor who opened the conversation, after the luncheon had been served and the servants had withdrawn.

"Father," she said, "I have been thinking for some days now that I ought to tell you something that happened the other night."

"What night, Eleanor?"

"The night Mr. Gormly made his famous speech in the city hall square."

He Bent Over and Kissed Her Fervently.

You know Livingston and Louise and I were down there in the car and saw and heard it all."

"Yes," said her father, somewhat bitterly, "it was told to me the next morning that Gormly had spoken from your brother's car and that after it was all over he had ridden away with you two young women."

"Told to you?" exclaimed his daughter. "Why should you be interested in Mr. Gormly's movements?"

Haldane saw that he had made a mistake. "I mean," he said quickly, "that I heard of all this from some of those who were present."

"Eleanor, I am surprised," began Mrs. Haldane in her loftiest and most impressive manner, "that you should allow yourself to be mixed up with this ineffable person in any way. It is bad enough to have Livingston espousing his cause; but to have you associated with him in the public eye, or out of it, is simply preposterous!"

"Mother!" said Miss Haldane mildly, but the elder woman was not to be stopped.

"The family has never been allied with trade since it has been settled on Manhattan Island. I am a five-barred Colonial dame; your father's people are nearly as old; and I say frankly that I do not like your intimacy with this person. Of course Livingston being a man, it does not make so much difference; but you should be more careful."

"I think it proper," said Miss Haldane at this juncture, "to inform you that Mr. Gormly told me that he—that he cared very much for me."

"What!" exclaimed both Mr. and Mrs. Haldane at the same moment and with one voice.

The intimation, however, and the feeling expressed in both cases were decidedly different. Both were surprised; but Mrs. Haldane's surprise was lost in indignation. In Haldane's amazement, there was a shade of relief. A possibility instantly leaped into his mind, a possibility that he dared not formulate or give utterance to. It rendered him less emphatic, therefore, in his disapproval. Nothing restrained Mrs. Haldane.

"The impudence, the insolence of that man!" she cried. "It was bad enough to have him aspire to be mayor of New York; but that he should have the audacity, the presumption to raise his eyes to you, Eleanor Haldane, is inconceivable! I trust that you reduced him to his proper position instantly. For one thing, I am glad that he did declare himself; for now the acquaintance will be absolutely ended."

"He did not ask me to be his wife," returned the daughter quietly.

"Why, good gracious! you don't mean to say that he—"

"Eliza," interposed Haldane, "don't be foolish. I have no doubt that Mr. Gormly's remarks were entirely proper."

"Mother!" exclaimed the girl indignantly. "Of course they were."

"Well, you said yourself he did not ask you to marry him."

"No," was the hesitating answer. "But he said he intended to do so."

"I wish he would do it then, and have it over with."

"My dear wife," said Haldane, "while of course such an alliance is not to be thought of, yet Mr. Gormly, so far as I know, has done no dishonor to Eleanor by his remark, and—"

"Have you taken leave of your senses, Beekman Haldane?" cried his wife. "Such a proposition as that should be disposed of at once, and I repeat I am sorry that the man hesitated, for whatever reason I can't imagine, so that the affair might have been conclusively settled."

"I am not at all sure, mother," answered Miss Haldane, "that it would have been conclusively settled in the way at least you seem to think the only way possible, if he had asked me to be his wife."

"Eleanor, you could not possibly love this man!"

"I could do so; but I certainly do not love him now. I certainly respect and admire him, I think he is the leading citizen of New York today. If he wins this election and goes on as he should, there is no reason why he should not be president of the United States. I believe it would be easier to be elected to that office than to become mayor. And while I do not feel toward him as I should toward the man I will some day marry, yet there are many other things in the prospect that allure."

"But you are a Haldane, you are a Stuyvesant, you are—"

"I know, mother, all that my ancestors were. As for myself, I am just an American girl, who likes American men and American institutions, and who is glad to see people do things."

"I presume," said Haldane, who had said little but had thought deeply, "that such a proposition, if definitely made, would be made to me."

"Well then, of course," said his wife, "you will give but one answer."

"And what would you suggest that should be?" asked Haldane.

"To show him the door."

"I hardly think," returned her husband, "that I should be guilty of that discourtesy."

"There is no use," interposed her daughter, "to discuss the matter any further; for he hasn't asked me, I haven't accepted him. I don't know whether he ever will ask me or not, and until he does why trouble about it?"

"Well, what does he mean then by telling you that he loves you? Loves?" sneered the older woman disdainfully.

"Yes," said her father, "it seems to me a rather remarkable course for a man to address a woman in that way, and yet not complete his proposition."

"He said that something was impending which made him feel that it was proper to tell me this now."

"Something impending?"

"Some sort of disclosure, I inferred," answered the girl, "that might affect him or possibly me."

Haldane started.

"Well," he said, "I do not quite agree with your mother. There is no insult in the honest affection of any honest man. But if he approaches you upon the subject, I wish that you would refer him to me."

"Father!"

"Heekman!" exclaimed the older woman, greatly surprised. "You don't mean—"

"Now, I don't mean anything, except just what I say," answered Haldane decisively. "It is proper that such a proposition should be made to me; and in short I very greatly desire to be allowed to discuss the matter, if it goes any further, with Mr. Gormly personally."

Haldane spoke sternly, and his wife at once subsided, as she invariably did when he assumed that mood. Eleanor, however, was not so easily silenced.

"Of course, in any event you would be consulted, father," she said firmly; "but so far as the disposition of my hand goes, that is a matter that concerns my heart, and it is one which, although I should be very glad of your counsel and your approval, I shall have to decide myself."

"Quite so, quite so," said Haldane. "I have no other idea."

At this moment, which threatened to grow more tense, Livingston Haldane entered the room. He was greatly perturbed and alarmed.

"Father," he said abruptly, "I want to see you alone for a moment or two please!"

"What has happened?" began Haldane, rising.

"Why, Mr. Gormly— But I would rather see you alone."

"Has he made a proposition to you for your sister's hand?" questioned Mrs. Haldane.

"What!" exclaimed her son.

"Eleanor," explained his mother, "has just stated that Mr. Gormly took advantage of your kindness to him the other night, after that disgraceful episode in the city hall, to make love to her in the tonneau of the car."

"You don't say!" exclaimed the young man, apparently neither shocked nor surprised. "Well, he's a good one. What did you say to him, sis?"

"It is very unpleasant to me to have these matters discussed in this way," answered Eleanor, her face blushing.

"As I have explained to father and mother, Mr. Gormly did me the honor to say that he cared a great deal for me. He did not ask me to be his wife, although he expressed his intention of doing so. He said that certain things had made him anticipate his purpose and state his feelings toward me now without waiting, as he had expected to do, until the end of the election."

"What things?" asked young Haldane. "Things that concerned him, or—"

"I don't know what they are."

"Well, I think I do," returned the young man.

"What are they?" his sister asked him with great eagerness.

But young Haldane was not quite prepared to declare what things they were.

"On second thoughts," he said, evasively, "I don't know. At any rate I want to talk some matters over with father."

"Financial matters, my boy?"

"Political."

"Very well. If your mother and sister will excuse us, we will go into the library."

"Certainly," answered Mrs. Haldane, making virtue of necessity.

"If they concern me or my relation to Mr. Gormly," said Eleanor, "I should like to know them immediately."

"They concern us all," he answered.

"And, by the way," he added, "I was going to withhold it; but I might as well give it to you now. Here's a letter to you from Mr. Gormly. He asked me to give it to you when I saw you. I was going to talk to father about this other matter before I gave it to you; but you can read it over while we are gone."

"What was it you wished to say to me, Livingston?" began the older man as they entered the library.

"Father," returned his son with bewildering abruptness, "I learned at headquarters today that you were the head and front of the Gotham Freight Traction company and all the rotten lot against whom we are fighting."

"From whom did you learn this?" asked the older man quietly.

"From Gormly himself."

"Does anybody else know it?"

"It isn't generally known, if that's what you mean. It hasn't got in the papers yet. The people who found it out, of course, told Gormly, and he came to me with it. He said that I had been one of his best and most useful helpers in this campaign; that as his fight was against the Gotham Freight Traction company, and in that respect against you, he supposed I would want to draw out of it, and he would give me an opportunity, so that I could leave honorably before the news became public."

"And suppose that I am—er—interested in the traction company?"

"To what extent are you interested?" asked the younger man.

"Well, that was not the question I asked you."

"But it is the question with me, father."

"I recognize no right that you have to put such questions to me."

"I may not have any right; but I am doing it just the same. I know and we all know just what the Gotham Freight Traction company is. We know that it is robbing the people. And for that reason I want to know how deeply you are interested in it."

"Go back to Gormly and find out!" thundered his father, intensely angered at the young man's scathing denunciation.

"No, sir, I'm going to find it out from you before I leave this room."

The situation was a terrible one for the older man. Under ordinary circumstances, he would not have greatly cared if his connection with the Gotham Freight Traction company and the administration had gradually leaked out; but to have it sprung as a trap, with warning on the instant as it were, and at this stage of the campaign, was ruinous. At his son's blunt announcement of his determination to know all then and there, he lost for the moment his nerve, his fine self-control and he went suddenly white. The two men had been standing. The elder sat down upon a chair by the desk and leaned his head upon his hands.

"Let me think," he said faintly at last.

"You don't have to think," went on the young man with unconscious cruelty, "to say how deeply you are involved in the affairs of the Gotham Freight Traction company."

"As deeply as anybody can be," was the desperate admission.

"Good God!" exclaimed Livingston, surprised in spite of his forewarning.

"You! It isn't possible. I saw the proofs with my own eyes, and yet I wouldn't believe that you would ally yourself with that gang of thieves and scoundrels."

"Somebody had to take that franchise and build that road," answered his father. "We are giving the people good service, and—"

"Don't make excuses," said the young man, brushing them away with a wave of his hand. "How on earth are we going to explain the facts? What will Eleanor think?"

"You have influence with Gormly," said the father. "Go to him. Tell him that I must see him and at once. Can you bring him here?"

"Well, he's watched like a hawk," said young Haldane. "Your dirty crowd has detectives on his trail all over New York. If he came up here, it would be reported in every paper in the city tonight and tomorrow morning."

"Never mind that. I must see him."

"Look here, father. I am not mixed up with the Gotham Freight Traction company and that gang that you're allied with, and I don't intend to be involved in any scheme you may undertake to get Gormly in trouble."

"I don't intend to make any trouble. I must see the man, and you must arrange it. Come, are you my son, or are you not?"

"I am your son all right," answered the younger man; "but I tell you frankly that I have cast in my lot with Gormly and this isn't going to make any difference. Perhaps we can save this off or rate."

"At any rate I must see Gormly, and you must help me. For God's sake, don't stand there arguing with me, but arrange in some way to bring Gormly and me together secretly and without delay!"

"Let me think a minute," said the younger man at last, impressed by his father's terrible insistence. "I have it. The car is at the door fortunately. I'll run down and tell Gormly you want to see him about this cursed business. I don't know whether I can persuade him to meet you or not; but I'll do my best. Then you go over to Louise Stewart's at once. She's true blue and won't betray you. Her mother is away, and she'll be alone except for the servants."

"Hurry then, and don't tell your sister or your mother anything of this," said Haldane as he rose to end the interview.

"No fear of that. I am not likely to proclaim it," answered his son shamefacedly.

MECHANICSBURG BEFORE COUNCIL

THOSE WHO DID AND THOSE WHO DID NOT WANT IT.

Sidewalk Improvements That Will Cost $30,000 Are Before General Council.

LIVELY SESSION LAST NIGHT

Despite the protests of several property owners and a petition purporting to carry the names of 50 percent of the property owners of Mechanicsburg against the improvement of several miles of sidewalks in that section, the general council last night clinched the work by ratifying the contract let to Contractor G. W. Katterjohn by the board of public works. The total cost of the work will be approximately $30,000. There were only four votes against the work, three councilmen opposing it and one one alderman.

On the heels of this the board of councilman tabled recommendation for the island creek bridge and the retaining wall, leaving the matter at a standstill.

Mechanicsburg was out in full force before both boards, although few occupied the time of the council by their oratory. When the contract with G. W. Katterjohn was reached Councilman Hannin moved that it be ratified. Councilman Barnett was the first to be heard from and submitted a petition, bearing over 100 names, which he said was fully 80 percent of the property owners protesting against the improvement. He was answered by Mr. Barnes, who said the facts were misrepresented. Col. George Green took the floor next, and attacked Contractor Katterjohn in his protest. He said the people are unable to pay for the improvement and the property was not worth improving. After his flow of oratory Mr. Katterjohn spoke in his own defense and said he did not solicit the work and they were trying to keep him from getting the work. Mr. Yates spoke for the improvement and was answered by Mr. McGee, who told of hard times. When a vote was taken Councilmen Barnett, Lally and Wilson were the only ones to oppose the work and the contract was ratified.

In the aldermen the delegation from Mechanicsburg made a short fight, as the aldermen were present at the speechmaking in the lower board. Alderman Potter was the only member to speak, and he announced that he would vote against the ratification of the contract, as he had always voted against the improvements.

Alderman Oehlischlaeger, president pro tem, expressed the sentiment of the majority of the aldermen. He said that Alderman Farley brought in the motions for the ordinances and he supported them because he thought Mr. Farley was acquainted with the needs of his part of the city. Publicity was given the fact that the ordinances were passed without opposition. Bids were advertised for and the contract was awarded to G. W. Katterjohn. Now when it was up for the aldermen to ratify it, the property owners protested against the improvements. He said that he thought the city was under a moral obligation to the contractor to ratify the contract. Had the property owners put up as vigorous a fight against the passage of the ordinances he said he was confident that the work would have been postponed. When the roll was called, Alderman Potter was the only member to vote against the ratification.

The street committee's recommendation that it be empowered to secure a practical bridge engineer to provide plans for the concrete bridge spanning Island creek was tabled on Councilman Duvall's motion. The matter did not get to the aldermen. The board also interfered with the improvement by tabling a recommendation that an appropriation be made for the retaining wall necessary for the construction of the bridge. It was recommended that $5,000 be apportioned from an unapportioned fund.

MILLINERY OPENING

Wednesday and Thursday Sept. 21, 22, 1910

AT 319 BROADWAY.

o'clock in the morning and sweep the sidewalk in front of his store was expressed last night by the aldermen on a motion for the ordinance committee to bring in an ordinance, requiring sidewalks in the business district to be swept between 9 o'clock at night and 5 o'clock in the morning. The ordinance was recommended by the city board of health, and was vigorously supported by Alderman Stewart, but it went down to defeat by a vote of 6 to 1. It was doubted whether the sidewalks would be swept by the merchants with such an ordinance in force. The ordinance would prevent the sweeping of Broadway from First to Sixth streets; Jefferson street from Second to Fifth street; and Kentucky avenue from First to Fifth streets and all of the cross streets.

First and second passages were given the ordinance providing for the construction of concrete sidewalks on Broadway from Eleventh street to Fifteenth street. City Solicitor Campbell decided, however, that it was necessary for the ordinance to remain over until the next meeting before it could be passed.

Tenth Street Boulevard. The board of park commissioners was given permission to park Tenth street from Jackson to Husbands streets. The park will be 40 feet wide, with a driveway ten feet wide on each side.

The recommendations of the board of supervisors that Virgil Greer be refunded about $60 paid as taxes on property assessed to other owners, was concurred by the aldermen.

The question of purchasing a small piece of property at Fifteenth street and Kentucky avenue was referred to the street committee. The property is owned by Thomas Torian, and is used for the street.

Alderman George Oehlischlaeger was elected president pro tem. last night and he ruled with an iron hand. He used his gavel frequently, and more than one city official heard it rap when he engaged in a conversation with an alderman. President Oehlischlaeger was intent upon securing order during the session, and he succeeded admirably. He was complimented by the members upon the manner in which he presided over the meeting.

In the presence of the alderman, City Treasurer George Walters burned bond No. 15, of the New Orleans and Ohio River railroad and 32 coupons valued at $720. The bond was redeemed by the city.

First and second passages for the improvement of Yelver, Ashcraft, Powell, and Thurman streets in Mechanicsburg by grading and graveling.

Property owners at Sixteenth and Jefferson streets were given permission to extend a connection to sewer district, No. 2. It will relieve a bad sanitary condition. The property owners will not be exempted from paying the regular assessment when sewer district No. 3 is constructed.

R. M. Philley was authorized to collect bills owed by private patients who received treatment at Riverside hospital. He was instructed to collect the old bills on the best terms possible.

The report of the finance committee was received and filed. The minutes of the last meeting were read, and adopted after slight alterations.

Those present were: Aldermen Farley, Hank, Lackey, Oehlischlaeger, Potter, Stewart and Van Meter.

Sam C. Smith was granted permission to change his retail liquor license from 129 South Second street to 105 South Second street.

W. W. Houser was ordered refunded $100 paid cost for a lot in Oak Grove cemetery. He desires to take advantage of the payment plan.

THE COUNCIL. On motion of Councilman Hannin the action of the previous meeting in instructing the hospital, sewer and sanitary committee to purchase furniture for the Riverside hospital addition was changed and instead it was placed in the hands of the hospital board with power to act. The minutes were reconsidered and then adopted.

Accounts amounting to $6,657.19 were allowed.

In order that accounts due Riverside hospital may be collected City Solicitor James Campbell, Jr., was instructed to draw a contract between the city and B. M. Philley.

The action of the street committee in recommending that Tenth street south from Jackson street be improved in uniform width with Tenth street between Kentucky avenue and Broadway was concurred in. The sidewalks will be 10 feet wide and the street will be 20 feet in width on either side of a 40 foot park way.

B. E. Hille, former clerk of the aldermen, was allowed $16.65 out of the appropriation of $200 for an assistant city clerk, for previous services. Councilman Duvall voted against the allowance.

A redeemed bond of the New Orleans and Ohio River railroad was ordered burned before the board of aldermen by City Treasurer Walters.

First and second passages were given an ordinance amending an ordinance, providing for the grading and graveling of the following streets in Mechanicsburg: Yelver avenue from Ashbrook avenue to Hayes avenue; Thurman street from Sowell avenue to Powell street; Ashbrook avenue from Powell street to Sowell avenue; and Sowell avenue from Ashbrook avenue to the right of way of the I. C. railroad.

On motion of Councilman Barnett the street committee was instructed to investigate the improvement of additional streets in Mechanicsburg not called for in the resolution sent in from the committee. He said that street needed improvement and the matter was placed in the street committee's hands by a vote of 3 to 1. Councilmen Foreman, Horton, Kreutzer and Leigh opposed it.

To the ordinance committee was referred Alderman Lackey's motion that scavengers perform their work on the streets between 6 p. m. and 6 a. m.

Alderman Potter's motion that the ordinance committee bring in an ordinance for a four foot sidewalk on the south side of Kentucky avenue, leading from Water street to the ferry landing on the levee was concurred in.

Property owners at Sixteenth and Jefferson streets were given permission to construct a sewer in the alley connecting property without sewer connections. The work is to be done according to plans furnished by City Engineer Washington.

Sweeping Ordinance.

First and second passages were given an ordinance, making it unlawful for sidewalks in the business district to be swept during the day. The limit was fixed at between 9 p. m. and 6 a. m.

A communication from the street committee in regard to ascertaining the cost of property for the extension of Sowell avenue in Mechanicsburg.

burg, was received and filed.

The street committee was given additional time in greeting the cost of property for the extension of Jackson street west to Guthrie avenue.

Sam C. Smith was granted permission to transfer his saloon license from 129 South Second street to 105 South Second street.

Miss Vergie Greer was ordered refunded approximately $25 on erroneously assessed rent and personal property recommendation of the board of supervisors.

A complaint of over-assessment from the J. W. Heasley Marble & Granite works was referred to the board of supervisors.

Guy Nance was ordered refunded $100, paid to the city for a lot in Oak Grove cemetery by error.

The board tabled the recommendation from the street committee that a practical engineer be employed to prepare plans for the construction of a concrete bridge over Island creek, on motion of Councilman Duvall. It also tabled a recommendation that an appropriation of $5,000 be made for the construction of a retaining wall in Mechanicsburg, on Councilman Duvall's motion.

Frank Dunn was allowed $15 pay for time off on account of illness.

All members were present, as follows: Councilmen Foreman, Horton, Kreutzer, Lally, Leigh, Mayer, McCarthy and Wilson.

CHANGES NAME FROM EPISCOPAL

"ST. JOHN'S AMERICAN CATHOLIC CHURCH," NOW.

Rector of Louisville Parish Getting Public Use to New Style Before Council.

RELIEVES COUNCIL WILL ACT.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 20.—The Louisville papers published under the head of "The Churches" the following:

"St. John's American Catholic church—1111 West Jefferson. The Rev. Arthur Gorter, rector. Services: Holy communion at 7:30 a. m.; holy eucharist and sermon, 11 a. m., on church unity. Text, Eph. iv., 4, 'One Body and One Spirit.'"

This notice for Sunday services was under the sub-head, "Episcopal," and preceding and following it were notices of eleven other Episcopal churches.

The change from the name of St. John's Protestant Episcopal church to St. John's American Catholic church attracted the attention of many persons, who wondered why it had been made. Because of this, and the fact that the American Catholic church is not the official name of the Protestant Episcopal church, a reporter visited the Rev. Mr. Gorter, in his study, to inquire the reason for the difference in the wording of announcements for St. John's church, and those for other Protestant Episcopal churches in Louisville.

Done Elsewhere.
The Rev. Mr. Gorter stated that in referring to the church of which he is rector as St. John's "American Catholic" church he acted as have rectors in a number of places in this country, especially the diocese of Milwaukee.

As is known to those who have followed church history in the United States, for some years sentiment for a change in the title of the Protestant Episcopal church has been gaining strength. It is believed a vote on the matter will be taken at the next general convention of the church, which will be held in October in Cincinnati.

Churchmen favoring the new title propose denominating the organization the American Catholic Church. Memorial have been sent up from a number of American diocesan councils. No memorial was received from the diocese of Kentucky because, it is said, it was not in form in time.

The chief opposition to a different name seems to lie in the anticipation by some Episcopalians that there would result confusion in legal transactions affecting the church, such as the transfer of property.

"It is to take away," he said, "the sectarian title, and give a title such as describes the church as it is—Christ's church. It is a missionary propaganda, not doctrinal."

He said he regarded the dictionary definition especially clear and as expressing the meaning of the word catholic in the sense used. That definition, in its large sense, is: "Of or pertaining to the whole Christian Church."

The position of the Protestant Episcopal church, as regards its conformity to the Church of England, and its independence of the Roman Catholic church, and the distinction between the two, would not be changed at all by the assumption of the proposed name, according to the view of those favoring the movement.

Where the new name is used today by rectors the title is not legal, of course, and its use is calculated to be an interest of the sentiment for its adoption.

The Rev. Mr. Gorter has been rector of St. John's church twenty months. He was called to this city from LaPorte, Ind., where he was rector of St. John's church. He is a Baltimorean and was confirmed in England. He has been in orders sixteen years.

The towboat Charles Turner has been dropped off the marine ways after being repaired and will leave for the Tennessee river today. She was damaged several weeks ago by running aground below here.

The towboat Dick Clyde departed for Carthage, Tenn., yesterday for a tow of ties.

The towboat Harth should arrive today from Caseyville with a tow of coal for the West Kentucky Coal company.

The Reuben Dunbar failed to arrive from Evansville yesterday and is due this afternoon.

Arriving last night from Nashville the Bob Dudley departed for a return trip to that city at 1 o'clock this morning, many hours behind time. She is now making only one trip a week between Paducah and Nashville.

The Clyde arrived today from Waterloo and will make a return trip tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock.

Tonight the ferryboat Robertson will conduct an excursion, leaving at 8:30 o'clock.

The Grey Eagle will be brought to Paducah soon to be rebuilt. She is now lying up at St. Louis.

Capt. John L. Lowry, of Cave-In-Rock, Ill., owner of the Evansville and Paducah packet of the same name, is said to be seriously ill at his home.

Engineer Ed Hellings, of this city, who left a few weeks ago for Baton Rouge to take charge of the engines of the C. M. Pate, has returned and is now on the towboat American.

The Mississippi River Commission has purchased a motor boat to be used for surveying purposes between St. Louis and Memphis.

The prevalence of the low stage of water of the upper Mississippi has resulted in many of the larger crafts on the stream being placed in winter quarters already. One of the boats which has been moored until next year is the Morning Star, the large excursion craft which was purchased on the Ohio river by Capt. W. A. Blair, last winter. The boat was brought up the Mississippi early this year and was overhauled and repaired, and was all ready to enter the excursion trade, when the river stage was found to be too low for the safe navigation of the boat and it remained tied to the shore all summer and has now entered winter quarters.
